

Thursday, July 17, 1997

South Jersey Edition

The Philadelphia Inquirer

Dow pushes past 8,000 as inflation wilts

Inflation, at a 30-year low, is "as close to being dead as we've seen in many, many years," said one analyst. Wall Street reacted by setting several records.

1000 1000 1000 1000 1000

The Philadelphia Inquirer

Business

Saturday, July 19, 1997

Trade deficit soars; Dow falls 130 pts.

China passes Japan in exports to U.S. Increasing investor confidence raises new fears about inflation.